

I think satellite radio should NOT be broadcasting traffic and weather to local listeners. That is the job of local broadcasters. Listeners bought satellite radio to get away from this unwanted interruption to their listening.

Locally oriented content should NOT be on national broadcasts.